Petersbourg, September 22.

THE Four Regiments of Foot which have encamped this Summer near this City, broke up the 16th Inſtant and returned to their Quarters. The ſame Day, the Feſtival of the Princeſs Elizabeth's Name-Day, was celebrated at the Palace. M. de Weſtphalen, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark, had on the 18th a publick Audience of the Czarina, in which he declared to her, in the Name of the King his Maſter, that his Daniſh Majeſty acknowledged her in Quality of Empreſs. Her Czariſh Majeſty was placed under a moſt magnificent Canopy, being attended by the principal Officers of the Court, the Generals, and other Perſons of Diſtinction of both Sexes. The Knees Tſcherbarouw, lately returned from Conſtantinople, where he had reſided in Quality of Envoy Extraordinary from the Czarina, had ſome Days ago the Honour to kiſs her Majeſty's Hand, and made a Report to her Majeſty of the Succeſs of his Negociation, and delivered to her at the ſame time his Recredential Letters. The Talk of the Marriage of the young Princeſs of Mecklenbourg is again revived, but the Prince who is deſigned for her is not yet named. Her Czariſh Majeſty intends in a little time to make a great Promotion among the General Officers. The Prince of Heſſe Hombourg is upon his Departure to go and take upon him the Command of the Troops in Perſia, which her Majeſty has conferred upon him.

Stockholm, Sept. 30. The King returned Yeſterday from Ulrichſal with Prince William of Heſſe his Brother, who had put off his Departure in order to accompany his Majeſty at a great Party of Hunting. His Highneſs will ſet out towards the End of this Week, his Domeſticks being already gone.

Vienna, Oct. 4. The firſt Inſtant the Anniverſary of the Emperour's Birth-Day was celebrated here with the uſual Ceremonies. We have Advices from Lintz, that their Imperial Majeſties were returned thither from a little Journey they had made towards Ens, and that their Majeſties intended to ſet out from that Place
